

Turn-Taking Games

Simple turn taking games could be:

- Spinning top
- Dropping balls down a tube/helter skelter
- Blowing bubbles
- Rolling a car down a ramp
- Building a brick tower
- Dropping shapes into a post box or shape sorter
- Banging a drum
- Bouncing a ball

More interactive turn taking games - these games involve your child acknowledging YOU are part of the game.

- Peek-a-boo
- Ready Steady Go! games
- Pushing a car back and forth
- Rolling or kicking a ball back and forth
- Hitting a balloon back and forth
- Having a pretend conversation on a toy telephone, taking turns to speak
- Taking turns to pour and drink a pretend cup of tea
- Taking turns to turn a page of a book or open a flap
- Lotto games – taking turns to take a picture
- Inset puzzle – take in turns to place a piece of puzzle
- Taking turns down the slide
- Taking turns to use a cutter for play dough

